

MILLIONAIRE MATCHMAKING
BASED OUT OF SEATTLE WITH NATIONWIDE MEMBERSHIP

Did you know Seattle, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Dallas, New York City, Atlanta, Boston, Miami, and Chicago have the largest concentration of affluent and ambitious single men?

That's why we've created an exclusive dating club, which caters to highly successful and affluent bachelors who seek beautiful, healthy, intelligent, educated and exciting career women...hoping to find their Miss or Mrs. Right!

These men have everything going for them, but somehow that special someone has eluded them at this time in their fabulous lives. And that's where you come in.

Although based in Seattle, we work with men and women nationwide. This is NOT, however, an online dating service like Match.com or JDate.com. We're a private and confidential off-line and elite matchmaking service.

4M's specialty is matching our male members with a fantastic woman. Although we can't promise when you'll meet one of our bachelors, we can say we do our best to guide our male clientele to find that special lady, which could be you!

Since you pay only a nominal fee for long-term membership if you're accepted in our exclusive club, we don't work one-on-one with you. We cater to our men, however, since 4M Club is designed around their needs and desires.

Keep in mind we get to know our women members very well through in-depth interviews and other communications – which help determine if you're a match for any of our bachelors.

Ultimately, 4M bachelors can choose who they wish to meet from our private portfolio of lovely ladies – although we do make recommendations as appropriate from time-to-time.

Our millionaires are carefully screened and interviewed (just as you are), and for safety reasons, we do criminal background checks. Our handsome bachelors are highly accomplished and respected businessmen and entrepreneurs, with discriminating taste.

As you may already know, our clients pay 4M Club a substantial sum of money for the privilege of meeting women with similar interests and relationship goals. They require a “certain type” woman, and we do our best to “give the customer what they want.”

Our clients are looking to fall in love and desire a serious relationship. Some would like to get married, and others hope to have a long-term relationship possibly leading to marriage. Some want kids, others don't. But each one of our bachelors wants the opportunity to meet the right woman!

They expect to be LOVED and RESPECTED for who they are as a person, and not what they own. They may be wealthier than most of us, but they still crave true and honest love like anyone else and deserve nothing less.

4M Club encourages our male members to choose women based on their hobbies and interests, intelligence, personality, personal ambition, and their overall philosophy on life. And yes, men are visual creatures, so your appearance counts big time! They want a beautiful woman...inside and out.

If a client wishes to meet and you agree, you can expect a great night out-on-the-town or maybe a simple lunch at a nice restaurant--or even just a latte' at Starbucks.

Whatever you do, dress appropriately, look your best, smile, and be yourself. Get to know your date from the inside out---but no grilling your bachelor (and I don't mean burgers!)

No one wants to feel like they're being interviewed on the first date...or even the second! Keep things light-hearted initially and show your humorous side – there's lots of time for serious talk down the road, if it gets to that point.

We only recruit intelligent, beautiful, fun and healthy career women who are serious about finding a great man. If you're only looking to date multiple men, then this isn't the service for you – go join Match.com.

If you are not working at this time, please contact us when you are gainfully employed. Of if you have other or special circumstances, let us know.

If we sense you're trying to become a member for the wrong reason (such as women possessing gold digger traits), then we will not accept you.

Providing you wish to join our service for the “right reasons,” we ask you follow through with the preliminary application process online. We will carefully review what you submit and would love to hear from you.

We're proud of our unique group of women members, many of whom are accomplished in their own right. It's an honor to become part of our club, and we value each and every one of you.

Any pictures you submit will NEVER be publicly shown on the Internet (unless we ask your permission to be placed on our home page). Our web site was designed as a Splash Page in Flash, with audio and video. The women you see on our site are actual members who asked to have their pictures on 4M's site.

Your photos should include at least one professional or digital headshot and a 3/4 or full-length body shot wearing jeans, slacks, or a form-fitting dress or top. Please, no baggy tops hiding or concealing anything – trust me, men ask if that happens and demand to see a different photo. If you have great legs, show them off (stylish dress or fitted jeans.)

If you don't have professional pictures, then please take a few quality digital photos (with no clutter in the background or other people in the shot). You can be casual, dressy-casual, or dressed to the nines---whatever you feel comfortable, pretty, and confident in!

If we feel, based on photos and preliminary short bio you filled out, that you will make a solid match for our exclusive club, we will notify you by email and schedule a phone interview. Allow up to an hour or more for the interview (and usually no less than 45-minutes.)

Finally, if you become accepted as a 4M member, we require you fill out a permanent and detailed profile

(there are 33 questions) for our records. It's what our men clients will see, along with any photos we choose for them to review.

This official profile form will be sent to you after we receive your registration fee (for those of you accepted into our club.) You will know whether you've been accepted or not after your personal phone interview with Christine Stelmack.

We will not accept credit cards. If you become a qualified member, we'll ask you write a personal or cashiers check payable to 4M Club at that time.

SPECIAL NOTE: Please DO NOT send any registration fee before you're officially approved by 4M Club. Again, this will be determined during a personal phone interview (if we wish to speak with you further), and is free and with no obligation

4M CLUB DATING AND SELECTION PROCESS:

We hope you understand our eligible millionaire bachelors, who pay a large sum of money to join, are the only ones allowed to view our portfolio of women members. Your contact information is NEVER given without your permission.

Any bachelor who asks to meet you, will also read an in-depth profile you'll fill out, once accepted into our club. So believe it or not, they don't only look at your pictures. We encourage our clients get to know you from the inside and out.

Having said that, men are visual creatures, and your photos do have a huge impact. That's why we expect current and up-to-date pictures, so there are no surprises when a client meets with you.

When one of our clients wants to be introduced to you, we will contact you immediately. Chris Stelmack, or a member of our team, will call and explain why our client wants to meet you, and we'll tell you all about him as well (what he does for a living, his hobbies, interests, appearance, etc.)

If we have photo/s of our client, we'll be happy to share them with you by e-mail if he agrees. Otherwise, for professional reasons, some of our clients don't wish to share their picture – if that's the case, we'll objectively inform you what he looks like.

We know you'll be excited when one of our bachelors is interested in meeting you. You'll have a phone conversation with him to start the process, and after that, you're on your own as whether you two decide to meet in person or not.

Even if there are no sparks on the first date--well, who knows...maybe you'll make an important business contact or a good friend down the road. Try learning something from your date (like what are the secrets to his amazing success and drive.)

Men of this caliber are not exactly a dime a dozen. We at 4M Club go to incredible length and expense to find these great men, and we hope you appreciate and understand our rigorous screening and marketing process.

There are many more women members than men for obvious reasons – we must have a varied selection of women for our bachelors to choose. Yet even still, it's a small group.

10% of our women have already met and married one of our multimillionaires. 10% more have become engaged, and 40% are in long-term, loving relationships.

If you've been accepted into our elite group – it's because we feel you have special qualities, which our millionaires seek. It's certainly a compliment when one of our client's wishes to meet you.

We have a solid group of wonderful and beautiful women – so it's to your benefit to accept an invitation from one of our bachelors. Ultimately, however, it's your choice if you want to meet an interested bachelor or not---but we anticipate you won't hesitate!

We cannot promise or guarantee when you will be asked out, but it's a wonderful opportunity to be included in our special club.

4M Club has already experienced a handful of marriages, engagements and many long-term relationships, so it's certainly worth a shot to submit a preliminary application.

Do it now!

Consider yourself a fortunate woman if you become accepted and end up with an eligible 4M bachelor. It's truly a blessing and we've changed more than a few lives around.

However, we ask you don't make 4M Club your "end all, be all." Go in with the right attitude and continue to live the great life you already do. If it's meant to be, something will happen sooner or later.

In fact, those women who join 4M and then forget about it (although we won't forget you); generally have the most success. Our bachelors don't want desperate women. They crave women who already lead a healthy lifestyle and have a great attitude and love of life!

We're very selective as to whom we accept...maybe two or three out of every ten women who send us photos make the final cut.

If we accept you as a member, you're in our private and exclusive club for a reason. We feel you have what it takes to attract our incredible bachelors.

We look forward to seeing your photos and learning more about you – good luck.

P.S. Our one-time administration fee for women is non-refundable and $250.00 for indefinite membership (those of you who make our final cut.) If that changes in the future, you will be notified in advance. Our gentlemen clients pay up to one hundred times that amount, depending on the membership package they purchase.
